Alumni Spotlight: Julianne Nicholson '89

The Arlington Catholic community sends its warmest wishes of congratulations to Julianne Nicholson '89 for her Emmy win for "Outstanding Supporting Actress in a Limited or Anthology Series or Movie". Julianne was recognized for her role in Mare of Easttown in which she plays Lori Ross, alongside Kate Winslet. We are so proud of Julianne and all her accomplishments!

Read more here about Julianne's beginnings at AC in this Boston Globe article from earlier this summer:

Alumni Spotlight: Ed Woods '73

Arlington Catholic celebrates Ed Woods '73 on being named the 2020 Community Person of the Year by the Arlington Rotary Club. Ed was honored for his work and dedication to the youth of Arlington and surrounding communities. Ed is certainly an example of someone who works tirelessly for our children and puts service above self always.

He has worked at Fidelity House for more than three decades; currently serving as the Executive Director. Under Ed's leadership, Fidelity House continued to run programs safely for children during the height of the pandemic and added support for families juggling remote learning. Ed is also overseeing a Capital Campaign to make significant improvements to FiHo for future generations.

Ed is a member of the Arlington Catholic Hall of Fame. Join us in celebrating Ed and the impact he has made on so many young people.

Congratulations to Ed on this prestigious honor and accomplishment!

Save the Date!

We will be celebrating the earliest founding of our School in 1888 during Discover Catholic Schools Week, November 15-19. We will honor 133 years of our School. 133 gifts for 133 years. Can we count on you?

Help us get a jump-start on Founders Day by making your gift today. All gifts to this year's Annual Fund support our students and school community.
