Alumni Spotlight: Frances Florencourt

Lilli O'Mahony '24 and Jane Stephan '23 recently sat down with Saint Agnes School alumna, Frances Florencourt, for an article they are writing for the school newspaper.

They had the opportunity to discuss Frances' experience and involvement in the SAS/AC community and the changes she has witnessed over the years.

Campus Happenings

Student Diversity Council Presentation

Our Student Diversity Club put together a presentation for the SAS 8th graders to discuss the importance of respect, inclusion, diversity, and equality as they prepare to transition into high school next year. SDC members began by sharing their own personal journeys and experiences that made diversity so important to them and inspired them to join SDC, before transitioning into a discussion about the four values (respect, inclusion, diversity, equality).

To put these values into practice, SDC members led the rest of the students in a game of sit down/stand up to highlight the diversity within the large group, before separating into small groups where they provided students with a word or phrase which they had to create a skit around. The 6 terms were: equality, inclusion, respect, standing up for yourself and others, generosity, and community.
